

THE INTERNATIONAL BACCALAUREATE

PUBLISHED ARTICLES ON THE INTERNATIONAL BACCALAUREATE DIPLOMA PROGRAMME

Introduced by: Peter Goetze | Director of the International Baccalaureate.

An interesting and useful article from "The Independent" newspaper in the UK dealing with the question "What do universities think of the IB?"

<http://www.independent.co.uk/news/education/education-news/what-do-universities-think-of-the-ib-435427.html>

From the UK's "The Times" Online, this article poses the question "Getting into a top university: can the IB help?" Some honest and realistic opinions from university students who have completed the IB Diploma programme in the UK.

<http://timesonline.typepad.com/schoolgate/2010/03/cantheibhelpyougetintoatopuniversity.html>

A very informative case study from the "International Education Journal" on why students choose to do the IB. This research study involving Year 10 students from both State and Independent schools from one Australian city was carried out by the School of Education at Flinders University.

<http://ehlt.flinders.edu.au/education/iej/articles/v4n3/paris/paper.pdf>

A thought provoking article by Catherine Doherty from Australia's e-journal of social and political debate, "ON LINE opinion". It poses the question as to whether the IB in Australia is a standard alternative or a marketing exercise.

<http://www.onlineopinion.com.au/view.asp?article=10291&page=0>

A very erudite paper by Catherine Doherty from the Queensland University of Technology delivered in July 2010 at Griffith University, Brisbane. It analyses how school managers accounted for their school's strategy in offering the IB Diploma and also how students, both involved in the IBDP or not, understood "who" should do the IBDP and "why".

http://www.griffith.edu.au/_data/assets/pdf_file/0013/223123/Doherty.pdf

Trinity Grammar School

SENIOR & MIDDLE SCHOOLS | 119 PROSPECT ROAD, SUMMER HILL NSW 2130
PHONE +61 2 9581-6000 | FAX: +61 2 9799-9449