The journey into a 1:1 (device per student) learning environment this year has certainly been an exciting one. It has been tremendous to watch the boys and teachers working together to make use of the many applications on the iPads (K-2) and the Chromebooks (Years 3-6). Whilst the teachers continue to guide and support the students in every aspect of their learning, it has been encouraging to see the boys thrive in the digital environment – one in which they are generally very comfortable. Today you should have received an email from me providing you with information about how to access your son’s 2015 Learning Folder that resides in Google Drive. I hope this provides another window (in addition to his other work and the things he shares with you) for you into the classroom and your son’s learning.

Please note we will be holding two Google Drive Parent Support Sessions on Monday 25th May and Monday 1st June from 8:00
– 9:00 am. Please feel free to drop in to ask questions or be shown some of the basics with Google Drive in the Library.

Trinity Preparatory School has a very strong reputation in the wider community for the extremely strong Music programme. This week highlighted the reason for this reputation with two standout performances on Wednesday. Firstly, our boys had the privilege of listening to a group of very gifted musicians from Musica Viva perform and share their musical knowledge and expertise. The boys were entranced by the amazing creativity shown. Part of the performance was an opportunity for our boys to be involved by singing along with some of the songs. At the end of the Year 5 and 6 session, the performers commented that our boys were one of the best audiences and ‘choirs’ they had experienced over their years of touring schools.

On Wednesday afternoon a select group of our own musicians performed in the final Celebration Concert in the Festival of Solos.
The performers ranged from Kindergarten through to Year 6 and showcased the tremendous range of abilities our students possess. It was also a strong reminder of the commitment and persistence required over a long period of time to develop the necessary skills needed to perform at such a level. Well done to all of the boys involved! I would also like to take the opportunity to thank Mrs Harding and her Music Department. We are very lucky to have them!

Last week was a mixed bag in terms of results on the sporting fields, however, I want to commend our boys for the tremendous attitude and effort shown across all games. Whilst the boys are training very hard to develop their individual skills and team cohesion to improve the quality of our performances, it is essential that we maintain a commitment to sportsmanship and teamwork.
at all times. Keep up the great effort boys!

Next Monday is the final of our Poetry Recitation Competition. I know the finalists have been working extremely hard to memorise and rehearse their poems. We look forward to celebrating some of our best orators at this event.

I draw your attention to the Trinity Ball on Saturday 13th June as a great opportunity for the whole School community to come together. I believe there are a number of people beginning to organise tables for this event – it would be fantastic to have a strong Preparatory School presence. If you are interested in attending but don’t know who to sit with, please call the School Office and we will try to point you in the right direction.

YEAR 6 FUNDRAISER: REVIVE THREADS

We are pleased to announce that a textile collection with Revive Threads has been organised by the Year 6 Committee. It’s a great opportunity to sort through your cupboards and wardrobes and donate unwanted clothing. This can include clothes, sheets, blankets, shoes, belts and handbags. As well as a fantastic way to raise awareness amongst the children of the benefits of recycling and reuse.

Stay tuned for the collection dates!

BOYS AND LITERACY

Evidence from around the globe has been clear for some time; boys, in general, demonstrate weaker literacy skills in comparison to girls. However, at Trinity our emphasis is on ‘which boys’ rather than ‘all boys’, acknowledging the individual needs boys bring to their literacy learning, as well as their unique social and cultural backgrounds. Given that literacy is at the ‘core’ of learning, we constantly aim to challenge societal notions that limit boys’ development of literacy skills. We do this to ensure they have every opportunity to achieve the best educational outcomes in all areas of their schooling life.

The School continues to develop and extend teachers’ professional knowledge and skills in explicit teaching for boys’ literacy development. Parents can also have a profound impact on their son’s literacy learning, especially in relation to reading. Parents are essential in delivering the ‘reading for pleasure and purpose’ message to boys which is so important. Some key strategies which have been shown to work with boys in supporting their reading at home include the following.

- Have a wide variety of books (fiction and non-fiction) and other forms of reading material available throughout the house. Boys tend to like reading stories that reflect the image they have for themselves. Graphic novels, books in series, humour, action and adventure books engage many boys. The School’s library website promotes a range of different books for boys at: http://trinity.nsw.libguides.com/books
- Allow your son choice over his reading, and value this choice, regardless of the perceived quality or educational value.
- Have regular conversations, in a casual and non-judgemental way, about the books your son is reading as well as the books you are reading. Showing your son the importance that reading has in your life can have a positive impact.
- Talk with your son about the purpose and role that the book he is reading for School has in relation to his learning. This is especially important when the book doesn’t necessarily fit within the genre that he is typically engaged with.

Researchers also comment on the critical role fathers and male adult role models play in a boy’s literacy development. Of key importance is the role modelling that is shown towards reading at home, not just magazines and newspapers. If boys don’t see the male adults in their lives reading and discussing the books they are reading, they’re not receiving key messages about the importance reading has to the lives of boys and men.

It is important that we continue to work together, School and home, in providing the very best learning environment for our boys to enhance their literacy skills, and for them to grow and develop into fine young men.

LIBRARY NEWS

Dear Parents,

We currently have a competition going on the windows of the library. We invite you and your sons to create a new name for our learning space! We have lots of changes occurring in the library and we would like you all to be involved. Pop your head in each day, as I am sure you will spot the changes!

We look forward to hearing the names you come up with.

The Prep Library

OVERDUE NOTICES – NOW TO BE EMAILED

We moved to a new Library Management System at the beginning of this year and are still working through some teething problems. One of these is that there’s no way to print hardcopy overdue notices, it has been designed so that they are emailed. We have set this functionality up and will be emailing overdue notices directly to parents/guardians so they are aware of any books that need to be returned to the library. A current limitation is that only one email address can be entered per student file. I do apologise in advance to those people that normally receive school correspondence to two different email addresses. The software update scheduled for over the holidays is supposed to allow multiple email addresses to be added, so some time at the beginning of term two we will add both parent/guardian email addresses where appropriate, in addition to the student email address for boys in Years 3-6.

CANCELLATION NOTICE

George Ayoub | Director of Development
Hi everyone,

After all the excitement of term 1 and the Mothers’ Day Stall last week it’s time to slow it down. It’s a time for contemplation and reflection. So, that’s what I’ve been doing - contemplating and reflecting. And do you know what these deep thoughts have produced? A renewed understanding. Of what, I hear you ask? Of the fact that we really don’t have enough people on the Auxiliary!

Of course we have a wonderful cadre of volunteers who are always there to help. Here’s a picture of them helping (I forgot to put it in the Prep News last week):

Magnificent! Couldn’t do it without them!

But what we also can’t do without is an actual Auxiliary. As in office holders. A quorum (super handy!). More than just me, Diana Farr, Katherine Galettis and Alana Rice. Because, frankly, as tops as we are, we really need more help.

Now, I know many people are very busy with work both inside and out of the home. Life is busy, kids make us busy - there is a lot of busy-ness. And maybe you don’t have time to commit to the Auxiliary. But I’d like to offer you a very wise saying that I just made up, “Many hands make light work” (yes, I made that up, what do you mean you’ve heard that before?). Maybe you see us running around like chooks with their heads cut off and think to yourself, ‘no thanks, too busy for headless chookery’. But it doesn’t have to be this way. If we could get a few more people onto the Auxiliary, who could take on just a tiny bit of the stuff we do each year we would be the living embodiment of sharing is caring.

At the moment we have only three people on the Auxiliary Executive: President - Me; Treasurer - Diana; and Katherine - Secretary. And Diana and I have sons in year 5. We are out of here in about 18 months and off the Auxiliary by August next year.

So, I’m starting a recruitment drive! Here’s a list of all the positions that we can fill. We don’t have to fill all of them, but it would be nice if we could.

- President (don’t worry, I’m not going anywhere yet)
- Two vice-presidents
- Treasurer (neither’s Diana, ie going anywhere)
- Secretary
- Parent Liaison
- Fund-raising Co-ordinator
- Fiesta Co-ordinator
- Canteen Roster Co-ordinator
- Clothing Pool Co-ordinator (Most ably held by Monica Roseworn - mother of Alistair in year 6 - you know what that means: gone at the end of this year!)
- Social Committee Convenor

Any of these positions can be shared or doubled up. I won’t get into all the responsibilities of each position this week because of space but I’ll explain each position weekly so that you can get an idea of how it is not actually that onerous. Of course if you want to dive right in email me on lizmcmullen@yahoo.com or call me 0430 085 664. I will cry tears of joy and be your best friend.

Please remember that the sole purpose of the Auxiliary is to support our boys and the school. The pay off is great - honestly, I have met so many people and made so many friends. It’s so much fun to be involved in the school, helping the boys, hanging out with the ladies and the occasional gentleman (shout out to Edger Paul!). The Auxiliary meetings are an excellent opportunity to discuss any issues you may have; they’re only once a month and we only managed about 6-8 each year what with holidays, stalls etc.

And I’ve saved the best till last - if you join the Auxiliary you get a badge! It’s very fancy and when I leave I’m taking mine with me, I don’t care what anyone says.

Please think this over. Talk with your friends. Like I said before you can share a job, you can take two jobs, whatever you like. We need you!

Till next week,

Elizabeth McMullen | President (and Parent Liaison and Fiesta Co-ordinator and Social Committee Convenor - am I rubbing it in?) Strathfield Auxiliary

HOME

Our latest exhibition at Delmar Gallery, Home: New Photography from Greece, was officially opened last Saturday afternoon by the Greek Ambassador, Mr Haris Dafaranos and his wife, Mrs Eva T. Dafaranos. In launching this exhibition from the Photography Centre of Thessaloniki, they spoke eloquently about the impact of the Greek economic crisis, people’s resilience expressed through art and the complex, profound evocations of ‘home’ presented by the exhibiting photographers. They also thanked Trinity for our initiative in bringing this exhibition to Sydney, and suggested that all Australian schools should follow Trinity’s lead in having a gallery on campus! We were particularly honoured that they had travelled from Canberra especially for the event, and it was pleasing to see that many people from the Trinity, Greek Australian and art communities took the opportunity to meet them and see the exhibition. Home features the work of 21 emerging Greek photographers, and is curated by Jacob Aue Sobol (Magnum Photos) and Sun Hee Engelstoft. It is presented by Delmar Gallery in association with Head On Photo Festival, and toured by the Photography Centre of Thessaloniki. Gritty, tough, yet tender, it offers an insight into Greece today that goes far beyond the headlines!

On exhibition until 7 June. Free admission. Open Wed – Sun, 12-5pm.

HEAD INJURY GUIDELINES

Trinity has clear procedures governing the prevention and management of injuries that occur in sport, co-curricular activities and around school. Managing head injury is an important and often challenging task. Staff members are informed of the procedures pertaining to head injury management via the Coach Handbook, head injury advice cards and in-service training. The purpose of this piece is to remind you, the members of our community, of the importance of managing head injury appropriately and to inform you about Trinity’s procedures. These procedures are underpinned by a conservative approach.

Below is a truncated adaptation of the Guidelines for Coaches section from our Sport Coach Handbook. The head injury protocol is designed to identify players who sustain possible brain injury, concussion or loss of consciousness and prevent them from exacerbating their acute injury or developing chronic related issues.

Concussion symptoms

A brain injury is suspected to have occurred if the following signs are present in an individual who has received a trauma:

- Unconsciousness
- Disorientated
- Unsteady on feet
- Vague, not focussing, unable to follow conversation
- Has a vacant stare
- Has unequal pupils (late sign)
- New headache or dizziness/blurred vision
- Has difficulty understanding speech or directions
- Has slurred speech
- Has weakness, numbness or tingling (arms, legs or face)
- Behaves unusually, seems confused or is irritable
- Has nausea or vomiting
- Can not recognise people or places
- Persistent or increased neck pain

If a person is unconscious it should be assumed they have a neck injury. They must not be moved and a call for medical assistance is required in serious cases.

If an individual playing sport exhibits other concussion symptoms outlined above they need to be assisted to the sideline for medical assistance. If there is any doubt over the symptoms, the management should always be cautious and conservative, medical advice should be gained or, if no medical personnel are present, an ambulance should be called.

Return to play (sport and vigorous activity)

Players should never return to the field of play on the same day if they have had a loss of consciousness or a suspected concussion. Such players need to be assessed for ongoing symptoms of concussion. An assessment should be performed by a suitably qualified medical doctor on the day and again before a decision is made to return to match play. The player should report to the School Nurse and coach on the next school day with a copy of the report from the doctor.

Any player that has had a concussion cannot return to high intensity activity, contact sport training or match play unless written medical clearance has been obtained. This clearance is to be shown to the School Nurse, MIC, Director of Coaching or Sportsmaster.

Head Injury Advice Card

Trinity’s Possible Head Injury card lists advice that should be adhered to in the event of head injury in addition to the Graded Return To Play (GRTP) procedure. It can be issued by staff, the School Nurse and Trinity physiotherapists in the event of a head injury. However, and most importantly, guidance from a suitably qualified medical doctor is a vital aspect influencing the timing of the return to activity post head injury.

John Allen | Director of Sport and Co-curricular Activities
FROM THE SPORTSMASTER

Thank you to all boys who competed in last weekend’s sporting commitments. While the scores in some games were lopsided I was proud of the effort from most of our boys. We have a number of challenges that I am very confident we can handle here at the Preparatory School.

Team sports are a great way to work together to achieve set objectives and while it may take some time for some teams to work well together, I am confident that our boys and coaches are committed to being competitive.

Some pleasing aspects of last weekend were our U12 rugby teams, and our U10’s rugby who produced some great plays off set pieces as well as moving the ball at broken play.

In other sports news, Andy Lee will be competing in the NSW All Schools swimming championships at SOPAC this coming Monday. We wish Andy all the best as he competes against the best in the state. Theo Christian was selected in the CIS Cross Country team to compete in the Championships to be held at Eastern Creek on the 11th June. We wish him all the best in this event and congratulate him on his selection.

Good luck to all our sporting teams for this weekend’s round of winter sports.

Play to the best of your ability, work hard for each other and always show good sportsmanship.

George Ayoub | Sportsmaster

Each year on the second Sunday in May for the last 18 years, scouts from all over the world undertake hiking and bushwalking activities as part of the international Jamboree On The Trail (JOTT). I was camping with scouts at the Baden Powell Scout Centre last Saturday night with local scouts from Drummoyne and Dulwich Hill doing JOTT. These scouts from 11 to 14 years were 15+ metres up in the trees doing a high ropes course traversing between the trees in the dark after hiking 12 km on Saturday and preparing for another 15 km on Sunday. They were having a great time. I was reflecting on why do scouts camp??

Why Scouts value camping is similar why Trinity has year camps, the Pine Bluff program, cadets doing bivouac, and the Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme, yet it is not quantifiable or particularly easy to explain. For scouts:

> Camping requires living deliberately, examining the essential facts of life.
> Camping requires establishing an outpost of civilization, managing resources, setting routines, cooperating, and learning the practicalities of interdependence.
> Camping requires recreating the mechanisms of survival, applying specialized skills, depending on what we can do with our hands.
> Camping takes us to the frontier where nature and civilization meet; we can learn a lot about both if we keep our eyes open.
> Camping separates from everyday life because camping is at odds with everyday life.
> Camping means leaving distractions behind; it is just us, the bush, and our fellow Scouts.
> Camping means pushing ourselves physically and mentally beyond our normal sphere of comfort.
> Camping asks us to take ourselves as we are, it’s hard to be someone you aren’t in the wild.
> Camping inspires humility, to confront our frailty in the face of the natural world.
> Camping inspires reverence for nature and teaches us where we fit in the grand scheme of things.

Trinity Scouts are preparing for our annual Region Camp at Waterfall with a working bee this weekend and the camp on the June long-weekend. There will be over 750 scouts plus leaders and helpers camping on bush sites, and another 300-odd cub scouts visiting the camp on the Sunday. The activities and all the reasons above make this a fantastic experience for the scouts.

Congratulations this week to Paresh Moodley and Adrian McManus for achieving their Explorer Emergencies badge, along with proficiency badges awarded to Dan Bellero (Information Technology), Adrian McManus (individual sport), Harrison Brown (model construction), Jake Paraskevopoulos (team sport), and achievement badges to Christian Shiller (music level 2 and cycling level 2)

All students interested in Scouts are welcome at 3rd Summer Hill (Trinity Grammar) – the Group is currently running programs for all Trinity boys from 7.5 years up to 10.5 years (Cubs) and 10 years up to 15 years (Scouts). Older students, including those interested in service projects for IB and Duke of Edinburgh, are also welcome. The Group meets in the old gymnasium at Summer Hill Campus on Tuesday evenings from 6pm to 7:30pm.

PK VISIT THE CELLAR

As part of our inquiry into how the world works, we took the PK boys down to the cellar in the Llandilo building. This was a provocation for our unit of inquiry ‘Colour and Light’. This adventure allowed the boys to consider the differences between light and dark. The reactions of our boys varied greatly when the lights were turned off so that they could experience ‘dark’. Here are some of their comments.

“The cellar was cold, chilly. It was dark when you turned off the light. There is no light from the sun and no windows.” Ryan Frewen

“I saw the lights, then dark. I couldn’t see in the dark.” Jeremy Lenthen

“The torches were light in the dark.” Jackson Galettis

“Mrs Sigston turned off the light. It was dark. I was brave.” Jerrie Zhang

“I am an owl. I can see in the dark.” Christian Farah

“There was lights, then dark, too dark to see.” Max Edwards

When we emerged back upstairs into the sunlight, many boys commented on the brightness of the sun. The boys are still talking about this experience and we are excited about the discoveries we are yet to make.

YEAR 6 CHAIRS
INSPIRED BY THE MASTERS:

The Year 6 Art Club have been having a wonderful time learning about some of the Master painters and painting their wooden chairs in the style of these artists. So far, all of the works are looking great and I can’t wait to see the finished products in a few weeks time. Stay tuned to see the finished masterpieces.
