‘I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do all this through him who gives me strength.’ Philippians 4:12-13

At this morning’s Pre-Kindergarten to Year 6 Chapel we stopped to reflect on the term. It was a great opportunity to celebrate the many successes the boys have experienced throughout the term, and there have been many. It is amazing how much can be achieved in one term! Throughout the Chapel we were entertained by a number of performances from some of our budding musicians and ensemble groups. At the end of Chapel we took the opportunity to thank Mr Joshua Leaper, our Gap Student for the last 12 months, as he finishes up at Prep and heads back to England. We wish him all the best in the future. We also wished Mrs Angela Kuo well for her long service leave during Semester 2.

Early next week you should receive an email notifying you that your son’s Semester One Report is available to be accessed online through your Trinity account. As you would be aware, this year we have implemented a new approach to reporting. Throughout the report you will notice a strong emphasis on celebrating each boy’s growth and development achieved as well as highlighting his ‘next steps in learning’. This focus is based on our firm belief that each and every boy is unique and is at a different point in his learning journey. We have been king with the boys to instil a commitment to ongoing learning that is lifelong. This is sometimes referred to as students having a ‘growth mindset’. Rather than simply focusing on what has been achieved or being ‘correct’, students are committed to ongoing growth, making mistakes and perhaps most importantly, learning from them in the future. I trust that the information contained in the reports, combined with the regular work samples shared through Seesaw, Google Drive and the Unit of Inquiry books, is a comprehensive summary of each boy’s learning journey this semester.

On Tuesday night a number of parents from the Preparatory and Junior Schools attended a parent seminar titled ‘Problem internet use and screen addiction in children’ presented by Dr Philip Tam. During the presentation Dr Tam highlighted the growing dangers associated with over-use of digital devices for young people, particularly in terms of the wider impacts that this can have in their development. He challenged us by asking whether ‘the internet is driving us, or we are driving the internet’. His key message centred around the importance of adults taking an active, consistent and (at times) firm role in moderating the use of digital devices, particularly immediately before bedtime. Click here to view the seminar.

During question time we discussed the fact that boys are using devices at school as well as home and whether this was appropriate. At the Preparatory School we are very conscious of both the importance of, and risks associated with the use of technology. We cannot deny the world that our boys live in and the digital literacy skills they will require in the future, however, we need to ensure that the use of technology is focused on learning and not merely being used because it is ‘nifty’ or interesting. Technology use needs to go beyond merely engaging boys, it needs to support the development of skills and deep understanding. This is a work in progress and one that is regularly discussed by teachers in their planning to ensure that we are driving the use of technology and not vice versa.
The Llandilo building has been a little quiet this week as a number of our Year 6 boys have been off-site on the North Coast Sports Tour. This tour provides boys with a valuable social and sporting opportunity as they mix with boys from other schools as well as having the chance to be billeted by another family for one of the nights. From all reports, the boys had a fantastic time and three very competitive matches against Bishop Druitt, St Columba and Hunter Valley Grammar. Thanks to Mr Bremner and Mr Gannon (as well as Mr Allum and Mr Borger from the Junior School) for taking good care of the boys while they were away.

Please be aware that Term 3 Co-Curricular activities (as selected at the beginning of the year) will begin in Week 2 of term. The parents of registered participants should expect to be contacted in Week 1 with further details. If you have any questions about this please contact the School Office.

I hope that all members of the School community have a wonderfully refreshing break over the holidays and have a chance to spend quality time with family and friends. We look forward to the boys returning with enthusiasm for another busy term of learning.

Year 5 students held their annual ‘Market Day’ on Monday, 20 June as part of their transdisciplinary unit “How We Organise Ourselves”. The key concepts emphasised during the unit included CONNECTION – examining economic systems that support commercial transactions, CAUSATION – causal relationships within economic systems and RESPONSIBILITY – the social consequences of economic design making.

Over a period of 3 weeks, Year 5 students worked in business teams to purchase raw materials on a tight budget, analysed data to determine product variety and produced a vast amount of products in their own time to sell on the day. Following Market Day, each business completed income and expenditure spreadsheets in order to determine their final profit. The total amount raised by Year 5 students which will be donated to charity was $2213, a tremendous effort! Each class researched a number of charities before deciding that 5N will donate to Guide Dogs Australia, 5O to The Exodus Foundation and 5G to Westmead Children’s Hospital.

Judging by the amount of excitement in the air, Market Day was a huge success for both sellers and consumers!

Hi everyone,

Holiday time! No ironing shirts, no lunch boxes - so glorious!

I hope you have a restful break because when we come back it’s all excitement, all term. We’ve got the Book Parade, the Fathers’ Day Stall, the Walkathon and Fiesta preparations begin. I’m shattered just thinking about it.

Also during these holidays you’re preparing yourself to finally join the Auxiliary, aren’t you? You’ve been thinking about it for a while and you’ve decided that now is the time. Are my Jedi mind tricks working on you? ’Til next term,

Elizabeth McMullen

Some knots have some strange names and interesting histories, like the Zeppelin Bend. The Zeppelin Bend is an easy, secure way of joining two lines. Where it really has great value, though, is how easy it is to untie even after it has been under a heavy load. The Zeppelin Bend can also be called a Rosendahl Bend after Commander of the Lakehurst, N.J. Naval Air Station Charles Rosendahl who purportedly insisted it be used to moor airships under his command.

Unfortunately there were no Zeplins at the Sydney Indoor Climbing Centre this week to demonstrate, however parents and leaders were tied to the ground as they belayed the cubs and scouts who climbed the walls. It was a great fun night to end a busy term.

Scouts don’t stop. This weekend three scouts, Ryan Snowsill (7Ho); Harrison Brown (7Du); and Aiden Murphy (7Du) are off to a Scout Youth Leadership Course at Heathcote Scout Training Centre while Dan Bellero (7He) and Nick Magoulas (7Sc) are intending to join the scouts from 1st Dulwich Hill-Marrickville to do the coast walk from the Spit to Manly on Saturday, weather permitting, as part of their campcraft journeys. The following weekend the scout leaders are competing in or catering for the BWRS NAVSHIELD Competition. This orienteering/regaining course over 100 square kilometres in a wilderness area is a one or two-day competition between bushwalkers, rogainers, and emergency services personnel to find markers of various value in the 8 or 32 hour events. The course location is only made public 6 days before the event, and grid references for the markers are revealed 8 hours before the start.

All students interested in Scouting are welcome at 3rd Summer Hill (Trinity Grammar) – the Group is currently running programs for all Trinity boys from 7.5 years up to 10.5 years (Cubs); 10 years up to 15 years (Scouts); and 15 years up to 18 years (Venturers). The Group meets in the old gymnasium at Summer Hill Campus on Tuesday evenings from 6pm to 7:30pm. We will return in Week 2 of Term 3.

THE AIR IS FREE

During the holidays, Delmar Gallery’s exhibition programme continues with our next exhibition opening on Sunday 3 July, 2-4pm (note that there has been a change to the date listed in the Record Book, due to the clash with the federal election). The Air is Free: James Fardoulys & Dean Manning will be launched by Assistant Director of Artbank, Daniel Mudie Cunningham at 2.30pm.

Sourced from collections across the east coast, this is the first substantial exhibition in Sydney in decades of one of Australia’s best naïve painters, James Fardoulys (1900 – 1975). Fardoulys’ fantastically idiosyncratic paintings of Australiana will be set in dialogue with new works developed in Athens by an artist sharing his Greek heritage, Dean Manning.

James Fardoulys arrived in Australia from Kythera, Greece in 1914, and criss-crossed outback Queensland and NSW with his ventriloquist wife and vaudeville troupe in the 1920s. Taking up painting after he retired from taxi driving in 1960, on a South Brisbane verandah he conjured Australian outback and colonial scenes. He mixed memories with whimsy, history with fantasy, and quickly established himself as one of Australia’s foremost naïve painters.

In a kitchen in Athens in 2016, Dean Manning (1964-) mixed traditional Greek pigments to etch out fragments of Athenian life: portraits of rembetiko singers from the 1920s, graffiti and street protests, smoke and conversation in cafes, refugees arriving in Onassis’ port, Ariadne’s thread and the Minotaur. His paintings and video animation find their way beneath the surface of his father’s homeland. Like Fardoulys, Manning is part of the Greek diaspora and a self-taught painter, arriving at painting through his music (by way of album covers for his bands Leonardo’s Bride and Holidays on Ice).

The Air is Free brings together Manning’s imagined Greece with Fardoulys’ imagined Australia.

The Greek theme will be carried through the opening with live rembetika music performed on lute and guitar from 2pm – 2.30pm, and delicious Greek cuisine.

Dean Manning’s works are for sale, price list available on request – email delmargallery@trinity.nsw.edu.au

The exhibition continues to 31 July (Wednesday – Sunday 12-5pm).
