Dear Parents and Friends of the Junior School,

It was with great enthusiasm that Year 1 students and teachers headed off to the Easter Show on Wednesday as part of their investigation into how we organise ourselves, specifically learning about the process of food, where it comes from and how it gets to our tables. It was also great to see the boys at the show via the Junior School Instagram page (https://www.instagram.com/tgsjuniorschool/). Thank you Miss Wilson, Miss Hexton, Miss Gratton and Mr Karagiannis for organising and supervising the day.

Students are now well into their second Unit of Inquiry which will conclude early next term. Parents and boys will then receive their second interim report which will note their progress in literacy and numeracy. This year, Interim Reports do not grade, rank or compare our students but instead seek to provide current and specific feedback focussing on each individual student’s areas of achievement and future areas for development. At the end of each semester, parents will receive the more comprehensive Semester Report. Whilst this will also vary in format from previous years, it will include grades, achievement and application across all learning areas. We are confident that the three reports across the semester will provide a detailed picture of your son’s learning as well as a springboard to further learning. Evidence of progress is always available to parents through Seesaw, work samples and through discussion with your son’s teacher.

I remind parents that the Head Master has announced an early finish to school next Friday. All Junior School boys will be dismissed prior to lunchtime. K-2 students will conclude the term at 12.15pm. Years 3-6 will conclude at 12.30pm. Boys will be walked to the carpark for pick-up as usual. Supervision will be provided for boys who are unable to go home between dismissal time and the commencement of OSH Club at 3pm. Special bus departure times have been arranged on this day for boys who utilise public transport. If your son will be remaining at school beyond the above finish times, it would be appreciated if you would notify the Office.

Co-curricular activities before, during and after school commence again in the first week of next term. In all cases it is necessary to re-enrol if continuing from this term and new enrolments are also welcome. Details and bookings can be made through the Trinity Community Directory (http://community.trinity.nsw.edu.au/).

Next Wednesday morning, 32 boys and six teachers from the Preparatory and Junior Schools fly to Shanghai to commence their 9-day cultural tour of China. Miss Cook, Miss Martin and myself will be attending along with Mr Wyatt, Mrs Sandwell and Mrs Bookluck. We wish our international adventurers safe travels and look forward to sharing their discoveries when Term 2 starts.

Parents are reminded of the ability to use Flexischools (flexischools.com.au) to order and pay for purchases from the...
Many boys are looking forward to an almost-end-of-term-treat next Tuesday thanks to the Auxiliary's Gelato Day. The next Junior School Auxiliary meeting is on Thursday, commencing at 9am in the Library Resource Centre. All interested parents are welcome.

Good luck to the 40 boys who will represent the Junior School at the IPSHA Cross Country Championships tomorrow morning.

Have you tried on the winter uniform yet to see if it all still fits? Now may be a good time to avoid any last minute surprises!

FROM THE ACADEMIC DEAN

LAUNCHING ‘ELEVATE’

The Head Master and I had the pleasure of representing the School at the official launch of the ELEVATE (Agile Design for High Potential Learners) programme by the Hon. Alex Hawke MP, Assistant Minister to the Federal Treasurer. Trinity is proud to be one of only 15 schools selected from the Independent, Catholic and Government sectors to be part of a core team of developers engaging in a robust innovative process to develop new practices that are future-focused, and which challenge and support high ability learners.

ELEVATE is a response to a research paper ‘Innovating for Global Excellence’ prepared for the AISNSW Institute by the internationally renowned UK-based Innovation Unit. The Innovating for Global Excellence paper found that:

> Most educational jurisdictions in Australia saw a significant decrease in the proportion of top performers in mathematical literacy and reading literacy between 2003 and 2012, as measured by the OECD’s Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA).

> Australia ranks 22nd in the World Economic Forum’s Global Competitiveness rankings, below neighbours like New Zealand, Singapore, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Malaysia.

> Australian managers score low in the ‘visionary and strategic leadership’ and ‘people leadership’ capabilities measured in the Australian Management Capability Index, and

> Education in Australia is one of the sectors falling behind in innovation, while educational innovation has been made central to the curriculum in countries such as China, Hong Kong and Singapore.

Trinity is committed to creating the best learning environments possible to ensure that all our boys, particularly those with the highest potential, have the skills that foster innovation, creativity and higher level thinking. These skills are critical for thriving in the modern global economy. Our involvement in the ELEVATE programme assists us in drawing on the best examples from around the world, collaborating with other schools in the core development group, and designing classroom learning approaches that respond and adapt to the needs of our boys, that challenge and engage them, so they can make the most of the opportunities that will come their way in the future.

The programme has also received strong support from the Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (ACCI). At the launch, Kate Carnell AO, the newly appointed Ombudsman for Family Enterprise and Small Business and former CEO of ACCI, said it was crucial for Australian businesses to play a role in preparing young people to become our innovators, job creators and social change agents of the future. As we move forward with the ELEVATE programme, the School hopes to forge strategic partnerships with industry as we engage in new approaches to realise the highest potential in all our boys, developing our future visionary and strategic leaders and industry innovators.

HEAD MASTER’S DASH – JUNIOR SCHOOL FINALS

On Thursday the fastest four boys from each grade raced off to be awarded the quickest boy in their year over 40m. These boys qualified through the heats run during PDHPE lessons where all boys in the School participated. Our winners for 2016 were; Thomas Bishop (Year 3), Lochlan Demark (Year 4), Hussein Naji (Year 5) and Riley Janjis (Year 6). The Year 6 race was particularly close with a blanket finish making it extremely hard for the judges to determine places. William Maistry, Dylan Guler, and James Hawkins will join Riley in next week’s finale against the Preparatory School boys. Thank you to Mr Andrew Murphy, Mr Richard Bishop and Mr Rory Kennedy who assisted with placings and Mr Mark Dunn for presenting the boys with the ribbons.

WINTER SPORT TRIALS AND IPSHA CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS

A reminder that all boys in Years 4-6 are required to attend winter sport trials at Bressington Park tomorrow. INNER WEST 7S RUGBY GALA
Report by Members of the 7s team

On Wednesday the 30th of March a combined Preparatory and Junior School 7s Rugby team competed in a tournament at Will’s Ground, Earlwood. In total there were 4 teams present including Newington White, Newington Black, Kirrawee and the Trinity Grammar.

Our first match was against Kirrawee which we won 6-2. Our second game was a 2-2 all draw against Newington Black. We played well in attack and scored two tries but there were a few dropped balls and Newington came back to level the game.

In our third and final pool match it was a tough 1-7 loss to Newington’s White team. They proved to be the benchmark team on the day.

As the day progressed we improved significantly playing Kirrawee for a second time in the semi-finals and our tenacious play and determination allowed us to win convincingly 7 tries to 1. This result put us through to the final against Newington White. It was a tough game and at 0-2 at halftime we were well in the game. Unfortunately they ran away with the game eventually winning 0-5.

Our coaches Mr O’Young and Mr Gannon were impressed with our defence, control of possession, continuity and teamwork, but above all it was our enjoyment and behaviour during the day that allowed it to be a success. It was a great start to the season.

Thank you to Mr Allum for his organisation of the day and transporting us to and from the game.

The sevens team consisted of:
> Harrison Evans
> Liam Clayton
> Riley Janjis
> Tom Desoke
> George Robson
> Jude Robinson
> Dean Paraskevopoulos
> Mackenzie Stewart
> Ari Nikolakopoulos
> Jake Varone
> Johnny Dong
> Nelson McEnallay-Mino

PSSA DIVING CHAMPIONSHIPS
Good luck to Max Fricker who will be competing in the PSSA diving championships next Wednesday the 6th of April.

Over the Easter Weekend the Trinity Scouts were out and about again. We had a great time fixing up our campsite at Camp Coutts on Saturday extending the site so we can fit in another tent, clearing the campfire and constructing some swales to manage storm water over the site... However, there is more to be done next term with the clearing of a new path into our site. We did have time though for the scouts to go exploring up to the “bubble caves” at Mount Westmacott.

All the outdoor activity and fresh air reminded me of a recent article in the UK Telegraph by Sir Ken Robinson. Sir Ken is known for his award-winning work on creativity in education. In this article he wrote about the decline in playing outdoors by children and the impact that is having on young people and their future. He believes that outdoor play and its benefits are “vital for education” and “vital for our families” and is a key member of a research group “Dirt is Good” where they have undertaken large international research with startling results.

As we plan our upcoming term break and having just had four days off over Easter, Sir Ken encourages parents to use this time wisely to help develop their children’s imagination and social skills — especially by encouraging them to spend more time playing outdoors.

Sir Ken posed the question “Why is play important?” and wrote that “academic research showed that active play is a natural and primary way that children learn. It is essential to their healthy growth and progress, particularly during periods of rapid brain development. Allow a child to be free outside with no structure and you will marvel at what they can achieve. Play helps children to learn important social skills, use their imagination, concentrate and be more self-directed. Yet, too often play is disregarded as frivolous and pointless. Consequently, there’s a growing, and alarming, tendency to reduce time for active play in children’s lives - both at school and home. The truth is that playtime is not a waste of time.”

Through research conducted a survey of more than 12,000 parents of 5 to 12 year olds in February and March 2016 in US, Brazil, UK, Turkey, Portugal, South Africa, Vietnam, China, Indonesia, and India it was revealed that:

> Nearly two thirds (62 per cent) of parents believe their children have fewer opportunities to play than they did.
> A third of children play outside for 30 minutes or less on an average day (this is less than a prisoner in a maximum security gaol)
> One in five (18 per cent) British children don’t spend any time playing outside on an average day
> Three quarters of British children would rather play virtual sports on a screen than sports in real life

While the report was written for the UK, the similarities in our children are alarming when we stop and think about how much “free time” is spent on a screen or with earbuds plugged into our heads.

Parents can see there is an issue: Parents agree that there must be a rebalance of children’s lives as they are losing access to the types of play that have great benefit for their wellbeing — and the research found that 97 per cent believe that without play, their children’s learning would suffer.

Sir Ken acknowledges what we all know: “Time is precious. There are huge pressures on parents and it can be a real challenge for families — especially for mothers or fathers who aren’t home before bedtime and who struggle to find the time to play. The report shows that a third of parents feel they don’t have time to supervise outdoor play.”

So what can parents do to help redress this play deficit? In the world today, seven out of 10 children live in cities. However, even if we live in a very densely populated area, we still have access to a park or some kind of open space or playground. It is in these spaces “where children can just play — running, jumping, rough and tumble, inventing games on the spot and seeing where their imagination takes them” that this is of great benefit.

Sir Ken advised that “when time allows – weekends or school holidays – consider heading to the countryside or a beach, where you can breathe different air and be closer to nature. It doesn’t have to be as organised as going to a theme park. And it doesn’t have to cost much, either. Rounders, simple games, running races - the exhilaration of physical activity is refreshing and invigorating.”

Sir Ken Robinson is Chairman of the Persil Dirt is Good Child Development Advisory Board. http://www.dirtisgood.com/uk/truth-about-dirt.html

Tonight at Scouts we put this to the test. With a simple beach ball and a small pole we had some great games that were challenging and exciting to play. They were simple games like seeing how many hits we could manage to keep the beech ball in the air without touching it twice in a row, a game of jump rope with a monkey fist knot on the end, crab soccer and poison pole.

The group also sat and listened to Adrian McManus (BHe) talk about what to pack for Ryan’s upcoming day hike in the holidays, and to Chil talk about sourcing items for longer hikes – he seemed to spend a lot of time at Ikea getting zip bags and kids kitchen utensils. He also found a good hiking spork when buying an avocado from the greengrocer!

At closing parade this week James Kaye (6Hi) was presented his individual sports proficiency award for tennis while William Brown (4M) was presented the Level 1 Achievement award for sailing. BRAVO James and 1-2-3-WOOF to William

All students interested in Scouts are welcome at 3rd Summer Hill (Trinity Grammar) – the Group is currently running programs for all Trinity boys from 7.5 years up to 10.5 years (Cubs); 10 years up to 15 years (Scouts); and 15 years up to 18 years (Venturers). The Group meets in the old gymnasium at Summer Hill Campus on Tuesday evenings from 6pm to 7:30pm.

YEAR 10 INSTALLATION EXHIBITION AT DELMAR GALLERY

Year 10 visual arts students will be presenting their multimedia and mixed media installations from this Friday evening. Come along to the opening at 7pm, or drop by the gallery on the weekend 12-5pm or Monday 12-4pm to see their work.

It was wonderful to see junior school students engage with our last two exhibitions at Delmar Gallery, “Gunungan” by Indonesian artist Bagus ‘Gonk’ Prabowo and “Miao Textiles”. As well as batik workshops with the artist for Year 1 and 2 Art Club students, Years 5 and 6 visited the exhibitions and created their own drawings inspired by Bagus’ fantastical creatures and brilliant use of colour. Pictured above: Tobias Lacey, 5B and Year 5. Detail of soft sculpture works by Bagus ‘Gonk’ Prabowo.

SOCIETY OF THE ARTS DIARY DATES

Opening at Delmar Gallery on Saturday 30 April, 3-5pm is an exhibition presenting renowned New Zealand photographer, Laurence Aberhart. Part of the Sydney-wide Head On Photo Festival, the exhibition is a chance to see a wide selection of Aberhart's prints from the 1980s to the present. Aberhart shoots exclusively on an 8” x 10” flatbed camera and produces contact silver gelatin prints, in a process originating from the early days of film photography. Literally imbued with time (the exposures can be up to 5 hours), his extraordinary photographs are reflections on transience and endurance.

NEXT CONCERT | Tuesday 17 May, 7.30pm

On Tuesday, 17 May, 7.30pm, Sydney’s newest baroque ensemble will be performing at Delmar Gallery. Members of The Muffat Collective have recently returned to Sydney after further study and engagements as soloists, concertmasters and in early music ensembles in Europe. The acoustics in the gallery are particularly well-suited to early chamber music, so don't miss this opportunity to hear superb musicians in a great setting! Tickets from $20, free for Trinity students and Society of the Arts members.
